Issue 252 Thursday 28th March

Dear parents/carers,

Our spring term is drawing to a close and we celebrated in style yesterday by assembling at St Michael's for our Easter service. The children did a great job and the service was thoroughly enjoyable.

Our school reports have been sent home this week. It has been wonderful to read how well our children are doing and what next steps they are taking in their education. We should all be very proud of how hard everyone is working.

I wrote to you at the start of term advising you of our new attendance incentives. Some children will be going home today with certificates but we will have our attendance assembly on the first week back to celebrate everyone who has had over 96% attendance this term and draw the raffle for the £50 amazon voucher!

From all of us here at Cledford, have a very happy Easter.

Mr Adlington
Principal

Year 4 Ancient Greek Workshop

During the first week back after the Easter holidays, year 4 will be launching their new ancient Greeks topic in style. A drama company called One Day Creative will be holding a workshop to inspire and engage the children. There will be no charge as Miss Wagstaff managed to secure a generous grant from the Classical Association to cover the cost. We are excited to launch our new history learning!

School dinners

We are on week 1 of our school menu after the Easter holiday.

Attached is a copy of new spring/summer menu. This will begin on Monday 22nd April.

Merits

- 3 Miss Addis – Emilie S, for her superb retelling of the traditional tale 'Jack and the Beanstalk' using 'and' and 'but.'
- 4 Mrs Giblin – Rhys K, for great listening and great writing.
- 5 Mrs Appleton/Mrs Peters – Elysia J, for her super resilience when making a fairground wheel in D & T.
- 6 Miss Hext – Dennis K, for impressing Miss Hext this week with his phonics and reading. Keep up the hard work, Dennis.
- 7 Mr Varnom – Lucas R, for always being attentive, ready to learn and trying his best in every single lesson. You are a superstar!
- 8 Miss Gee – Rocky B, for a great positive attitude to school this week. Keep it up, Rocky!
- 9 Miss Platt – Noah D & Frankie P, for being the first boy & girl to complete the Mad Minute and the Olympic Times Tables Challenges.
- 10 Mrs Phillipson - Mason H, for a continued effort to improve his handwriting.
- 11 Mr Gill – Thomas W, for his endless enthusiasm as well as his excellent speaking and listening skills this week. Well done!
- 12 Mrs Marsland – Sophie H, for always being ready to share her answers and ideas in class. Keep it up!
- 13 Miss Wagstaff/Mrs Lester – Ava B, for demonstrating a conscientious approach to everything she does.

EYFS News

Class 1 merit- Bobby Tutty for amazing work on the challenges around the classroom.

Class 2 merit - Miss Parton – Kash H, for learning how to write his name correctly

We have had lots of Easter fun this week! Tasting hot cross buns, going on an egg hunt and even a visit from the Easter bunny with a little treat for everyone! The children enjoyed the church service, the walk back to school was a little soggy but we were proud of their resilience and positive attitude; nobody complained!

Have a wonderful break, enjoy spending time as a family and getting out and taking part in all the fun in the local area and beyond!

The last push before year 1 is coming up...

Many thanks for your support,

The EYFS Team
