Issue 223 16th June 2023

Dear parents and carers,

A huge well done goes out to our year 1 and some of our year 2 pupils this week who have done a brilliant job in their phonics screening assessments this week.

We were also honoured to have Bishop Mark from Chester Cathedral visit us this week. He toured the school, met our school council and delivered a very entertaining assembly to all of our pupils here at Cledford. We look forward to welcoming him back again in the future.

Have a great weekend.

Mr Adlington
Principal

Mrs Beryl Blair

We were deeply saddened to hear of the death, following a period of illness of Mrs Beryl Blair who taught for many years at Cledford. Beryl was a much loved teacher, friend and colleague. She will perhaps be remembered most for her love of music which she shared passionately with the pupils, teaching them to play instruments (supported by her husband Sandy), as well as running a very successful school orchestra. Beryl's funeral will be held at Vale Royal Crematorium, Northwich CW9 8RP on Thursday 22nd June at 12 noon. It will be family flowers only with donations to the Christie Hospital, Manchester in her honour. Beryl's family have said it would be lovely if people could wear something blue.
Rest in peace, Beryl.

Design Project in Years 3 & 4

Year 3 & 4 have asked if anyone has any old buttons, sheets or pillow cases that they would be happy to donate please could you bring them into school for a design and technology project.

Thank you

EYFS News

Phew! It has been a hot one for the children and staff this week! The children have risen to the challenge of maintaining concentration and focus through the sticky afternoons and have been learning about animals who live in the jungle by reading the book 'Rumble in the Jungle'. The weather certainly helped to enhance the hot jungle atmosphere!

The focus has been on fact versus fiction, rhyming words and creating a story using ideas from the class. The children have written their own ending to a story they created. Maths work continues to focus on ways of making 10, doubles to 20 and this week also counting on from a given number instead of starting at 1. This song has been a great addition to our 'singing classroom' <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tLzOkpH2zym>

Unfortunately, the extreme heat meant that we could not go ahead with Forest School this week. Fingers crossed that our next session can go ahead as planned.

Thank you for your support with the non-uniform donation day for the summer fair. The PTFA are working hard to prepare for the event, which is a great way to raise money for the school and finish the school year. We are looking forward to seeing you all there!

Roll on next week when the children will be delving more deeply into the topic of endangered animals and learning about the Javan Rhino. We will be reading a story called 'Ronald the Rhino'.

Enjoy the weekend and stay safe in the sun. Fingers crossed the garden might see a bit of rain!
