Issue 251 Friday 9th January 2020

Dear parents/carers,

Welcome back and a very happy New Year to you all! It has been a pleasure to welcome our pupils and families back to school for the first week of the new term and I would like to thank everyone for the positive start we have made together. A special word of thanks goes to families for your determination and support in getting children to school safely during the snow and icy conditions earlier this week. We know this was not easy for everyone and your efforts were very much appreciated. Thankfully, Storm Goretti seems to have passed us by so far.

The children have settled back into school routines extremely well, showing enthusiasm, resilience and a real readiness to learn. We are incredibly proud that our attendance this week is above the national average, which reflects the strong partnership between home and school and the value our community places on education.

We are delighted to be launching our new 'Stay and Play' sessions next week for parents and carers with children aged 0–5. These sessions are completely free and open to everyone, not just families with children already at our school. Please do come along and enjoy time together. We would be very grateful if you could help spread the word to friends, neighbours and other families in the Middlewich community.

There is also lots to look forward to in the coming weeks. Next week, pupils will be visiting The New Vic Theatre to watch their production of The Little Mermaid. To make the experience even more special, our kitchen team will be serving an "Under the Sea" themed lunch, which we know the children will love.

Finally, our Year 3 pupils have started their swimming lessons this week and returned on Wednesday absolutely beaming. With Middlewich's many canals and rivers, we recognise the importance of water safety and these lessons are a vital part of keeping our children safe and confident.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support. I hope you have a great weekend.

Mr C Adlington

EYFS News

Happy New Year! Welcome back, I am sure you are enjoying the routine and predictability of school days! The beginning of the week was a little unpredictable however! It has all been about the snow this week. Children who were in school had lots of fun playing in the snow. It was the ideal opportunity for lots of investigative science learning. Since the snow has melted, we have been able to get back into our normal routine and the children have settled back in really well. Reception children have been learning about New Year resolutions and even made some of their own. Pre School children have been learning about arctic animals and camouflage using a story called 'A thing called Snow' and nursery children have been singing '5 Little Snowmen' and getting to know their new friends who started nursery this week. There may be more snow next week according to the forecast. Please make sure your child brings suitable clothing to school if that is the case; we will always take advantage of a snowy day to get outside and enjoy it!

Many thanks for your continued support.

Mrs Higgins and the EYFS team
